

FIAAI Tackling Indigenous Smoking Program Launceston: Job Vacancy

Tobacco Action Worker – FIAAI Tackling Indigenous Smoking Program Launceston, Tasmania.

Flinders Island Aboriginal Association Inc.
(FIAAI) currently have a vacancy for a Tobacco Action Worker within FIAAI's Tackling Indigenous Smoking Program. Contracted until June 2018 (with the possibility of extension beyond this date), this position presents an opportunity to be part of a small Launceston-based team dedicated to reducing the level of Aboriginal smoking throughout Tasmania. Reporting to the local Team Leader, this role is available full time or part time by negotiation.

As the Tackling Indigenous Smoking Program involves collaboration with Aboriginal (and other) organisations, schools and Communities around the state, a willingness to undertake some travel in the role is essential. A driver's licence is also essential, and significant connection to Tasmanian Aboriginal Communities is highly desirable.

If you're interested in making a difference to Tasmanian Aboriginal health outcomes and can demonstrate the above we'd love to hear from you.

For more information about this position and a job description which includes process for applying contact Lee Seymour at the FIAAI Tackling Smoking office on 6334 5721 or via email at:

lee.seymour@fiaai.org.au

Applications close COB, August 18th, 2017.
